

April 3, 2024 - liaison meeting

Thursday, September 7, 2023 09:24

Agenda

- TABS eclipse plan
 - Following the TCC plan to go to the seventh floor of the parking garage
- Henson and Asbury are meeting with Kristan Hemmingway for changes to math
 - Mr. Birney will need to teach geometry, which means we will need TCC instructors to cover dual-credit calculus
- TABS might eliminate the C-day schedule next school year
 - Fort Worth ISD wants all schools to use a rotating A-B schedule for Fridays. For TCC, this could impact labs and number of courses that students can take
- For 2024-2025, TABS will double-block Algebra 1 for incoming students who have 89 or below in eighth-grade math
- Thanks for the lunch 'n' learn lunches
- Spring testing
 - ACT
 - Six students April 8
 - STAAR
 - Students in ninth and 11th are hit the hardest
 - A.P.
 - SAT Suite
 - Scores must be sent through College Board, not directly to TCC
- Ninth-graders will be allowed in the TCC cafeteria on Fridays starting April 5
 - Henson will talk to TCC Police
- Senior Banquet and Decision Day
 - TCC stoles have been ordered
 - Cake will be ordered next week
 - Working on having Dos Molinas for the banquet
 - Henson and McGowan inviting upper-level officials from both districts
- McGowan is getting a new administrative assistant
- KINE 1304
 - Content might be too adult for ninth-grade students. Professors might feel uncomfortable.
 - McGowan: If the student is in the class, teach the student.
 - TABS does not plan to put ninth-graders into that course

Attendees

- Candace McGowan, TCC educational partnerships director
- Latika Davis, TCC coordinator of educational partnerships
- Jack Henson, TABS principal
- Johanah Okweni, TABS success coach
- Brian Wooddell, TABS postsecondary success specialist
- Sandra Muñoz, TABS counselor

Action Items

- ☐ Wooddell and Anderson will send rosters to Davis and McGowan