Suit up, dress up and dance all night

Homecoming is Saturday night! Don't miss the fun and craziness with your fellow Tornados. The dance starts at 6 p.m. over at Kazadorez Event Center. Buy your ticket now.

Celebrate the big event by decorating the hallways after school Thursday. And Friday, show your school spirit by wearing TABS gear and your mum or garter. Contact: Ms. Wolf

FROM THE COUNSELORS

College readiness, grades, transcripts and attendance recovery are on the top of the priority list for the counseling team. Here are the highlights:

- ♦ Attendance recovery for the fall semester begins Jan. 30 and 31.
- ♦ Transcripts with updated GPAs and rankings will be available for students in grades 10-12 on Feb. 5.
- ♦ Grade 12 students must complete FAFSA or TASFA to graduate. Submit proof to Ms. Baltazar before the end of February.
- ♦ The next family webinar will be about program offerings from UNT Health Science Center. It will take place Feb. 19.

UPCOMING EVENTS

JAN. 25-FEB. 7

- ♦ Jan. 26: TCU Pre-Health Ambassador presentation (10th)
- ♦ Jan. 27: Homecoming dance

Tournaments prove power of words

If you're the bookish, competitive sort, you're in luck! UIL literary criticism will teach you to analyze and interpret texts. TABS' team meets after school Wednesdays in TRWF 4410. Battle of the Books is a quiz-style competition in which participants must respond to questions about various books. That team meets during advisory Wednesdays, also in TRWF 4410. Masters, rook-ies invited to Chess Club

Try your hand at the original game of thrones! TABS' new Chess Club meets for casual matches during lunch Wednesdays and after school Fridays for formal training with Ms. Zagal's husband, Mr. Kurima and Mr. Brinker. There will even be opportunities to compete in tournaments. No experience required.
