HEY, ARNOLD!

Meet Maj. Arnold, drop-off guardian

By now, the Maj. Ripley Arnold Statue, on Taylor Street, should be a familiar sight to TABS families. Arnold, who died in 1853, founded Camp Worth—later Fort Worth—on June 6, 1849. His story is a complicated and intriguing one that involves war, theft and a fateful duel. Read all about him thanks to the Texas State Historical Association.

Pick-up and drop-off spot

TABS and the TCC Police would like to remind all parents and guardians that Taylor Street is the only appropriate spot to pick up and drop off students.
