No time like now to study for SAT

All of TABS' 11th-graders will take the SAT on March 5. This free exam opportunity can help students with college and scholarship applications and can replace the TSIA for students who haven't completed it. Students can study using the Bluebook app and Khan Academy.

Testers should arrive by 7:45 a.m. March 5 and bring a charged laptop (FWISD-owned or personal). All testing will occur in rooms 4402-4410.

Celebrating Black excellence

February is Black History Month, and TABS is celebrating with its annual Black History Month program. It will feature student performances of everything from dance to poetry to music.

There will be two shows, both on March 8: Students will be able to attend at the end of the school day. TABS families are invited to the evening performance, which begins at 6 p.m. in the Action Suite.
